

Soviets face Afghan uprising

The Associated Press Soviet forces were reported facing a long war in Afghanistan's snowy mountains as the Kremlin accused President Carter of "wicked" outcries...

Pakia and Nangarhar, in the south and east of Kabul, and that Moscow sent a team of generals to the battlefields to assess the fighting...

Please turn to AF018A on back page of section

Afghan students in Denver protest Soviet invasion of their homeland

Kubasek blasts Loehr

City Councilman Stephen Kubasek, R-T, the Republican Majority Leader, today disputed that Democratic Mayor Gerald E. Loehr was working in the bipartisan spirit he called for at his inauguration four days ago...

his kind words of support and encouragement to the new mayor. Mayor Loehr said today, "It's unfortunate he's upset..."

Please turn to KUBASEK on back page of section

Queens D.A. denies 'Sam' probe is over

A spokesman for Queens District Attorney John Santucci said Thursday that, contrary to a published report, the office's re-opened investigation of the "Son of Sam" murders is continuing and there are no present plans to conclude it...

Wounded companion

The Santucci spokesman, press aide Thomas McCarthy, declined to comment on any progress made thus far in the new probe, which was begun last October after Gammett Westchester Newspapers published a number of articles demonstrating the probability that Berkowitz was not alone in the year-long rampage...

A wounded Revolutionary Guard gets some good-natured cheer from a colleague in Tabriz, Iran, Wednesday after members of the Republican Muslim People's Party released nine hostages. The Revolutionary Guards are faithful followers of Ayatollah Khomeini.

The new inquiry is focusing primarily on Berkowitz' recently confirmed relationship with the late John Carr, son of Sam Carr of Yonkers — the so-called "master" Berkowitz said ordered him to kill...

A severe shortage of substitute teachers in the Yonkers school system left all classes unprepared throughout the district during November, according to a report released this week by the Yonkers Board of Education.

Reporting a fire? Call 423-7100

The Yonkers Fire Department is changing its emergency telephone number to 423-7100 as of Jan. 8, according to Fire Chief Richard Smith.

Students suffer substitute shortage

School officials blame the substitute shortage which has plagued the district for the last several years, on budget cuts which have forced Yonkers to pay substitute teachers $20 a day, one of the lowest rates in the county...

Missed bargain price MTA admits Glenwood goof

By JENNIE TRITEN Staff Writer If I could find out who goofed, I'd be after that person's scalp," said John McAlvey, of the state Metropolitan Transportation Authority board and chairman of its Capital Committee...

When he first joined the MTA board in August, McAlvey recalls "whispering" that ring-bound life on the subject which was supposed to include all correspondence on the matter...

Various letters were made available to the newspaper revealing that Con Edison at first offered to sell both buildings for $50,000 and later agreed to sell only the substation for Conrail for $30,000.

Please turn to MTA on back page of section

Inside Lifestyles Screen star Janet Gaynor makes her Broadway debut January 29 in "Harold and Maude" A behind-the-curtain look is on page B1. Sports It was a good night for both the Knicks and Nets — the Knicks blew apart visiting San Diego, while the Nets trimmed host Atlanta. World/Nation Rebuffed by Ayatollah Khomeini, U.N. Secretary General Waldheim left Tehran for New York today, cutting short by one day his rescue mission to Iran. Weather Increasing cloudiness and cold today, high in the upper 20s. Cloudy tonight, with snow beginning around midnight, low in the teens. Chance of precipitation 20 percent today, 80 percent tonight. Details on A2. Index Campbell...A3 Lifestyles...B1-8 Classified...C-7 Money...B6, 7 Comics...B8 Obituaries...A4 Editorial...A6 Sports...C1, 3, 8 HELPS...A2 Weather...B4 Insight...A7 World/Nation...A5