HOMICIDE OF DONNA LAURIA I/R/18 BORO CASE #72

On this date the undersigned with Det. Summers interviewed [redacted] assistant manager of Cooks Sporting Good Store, located in Alburquerque New Mexico who ,through his records, detirmined that this company had sold only one .44 cal. Charter arms revolver since the end of April,1976. After he was shown a series of photos, he identified [redacted] as being in the store, and that at the time he was in the store he had an earing in his ear. The store records disclosed that the .44cal Charter Arms was sold to one [redacted],D.O.B.[redacted] The counterman remembered that the money to buy the gun was given to [redacted] by a man named [redacted], who himself bought numerous hand guns at the same time.

The investigating officers then went to [redacted] the address given by [redacted] as his residence and found no one to be home. An interview of the local mailman disclosed that he had never heard of [redacted] and because he knew the people at that address,believed that [redacted] had made a mistake. A check of the address given by [redacted],disclosed that he also was unknown [redacted] ~~XXXX~~ the address on his New Mexico drivers license.

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF DETECTIVES May 26, 1977

TO ALL COMMANDING OFFICERS:

Please acquaint all members of your command with the following information concerning the person responsible for five homicides and four felonious assaults (gun) committed between July 1976 and April 1977 in the Bronx and Queens.

".44 CALIBRE KILLER"

DESCRIPTION

The ".44 CALIBRE KILLER," who calls himself "SON OF SAM", is described as follows:
A Male, White, 20 to 35 years old, medium to tall in height, medium build, dark hair (mod style, well groomed), clear skin, pale complexion, clean shaven, dark piercing eyes. During cold weather he has worn a tan, form fitting, 3/4 length coat; during chilly weather, a knee length beige raincoat; in warm weather, dark pants and a blue polo shirt with white stripes.

He is probably right handed. He shoots combat style: two handed and from a crouch. He carries a .44 calibre "Bulldog" revolver manufactured by the Charter Arms Co. The gun may be carried concealed in a plastic or paper bag or on his person.

MODUS OPERANDI

He travels from one area to another probably by vehicle. He then prowls a selected area on foot in search of victims. He has chosen attractive white females aged 17 to 26, in a public area, on foot or in a vehicle, alone or with a male or female companion. If the intended victim is in an auto, he approaches from behind and shoots through the passenger side window. If the intended victim is on foot, he approaches as if to ask directions and then shoots the victim at close range. All his attacks have been during hours of darkness, and all, except one, after midnight.

PSYCHOLOGY

Psychiatrists and psychologists disagree on his motivation but diagnose him as a neurotic, schizophrenic, and paranoid, with religious aspects to his thinking process, as well as hintings of demonic possession and compulsion. He is probably shy and odd, a loner inept in establishing personal relationships, especially with young women.

RELIGION

There is a strong likelihood that he is a Christian and probability that he has had Catholic or Episcopalian schooling.

EDUCATION

Educators estimate that he is at least a high school graduate and that he may have had some college training.

CAUTION

This man is armed and dangerous. He may shoot at police who attempt to stop or arrest him.

NOTIFICATION

Any information concerning this case should be telephoned to the Special Homicide Task Force at the 109th Precinct:
