

5/24/96 visit

---Mickey Rose and Staten Island: Process had an enclave there. They met there. If DeGrimston moved there later, it's because they'd set up camp there before, which he knew they'd done. Mickey himself may have told him about going to SI. But he knew Mickey'd been there. It's possible someone else told him, too, or instead. He said, "You already confirmed that he was with Process when he admitted being with people with capes and robes in the Village. That was them."

---Maplethorpe: He'd mentioned a few months ago that it was a "Possibly, maybe" on him. This was the same time he said he never knew Crispo. Following up, he said the name was familiar, might have seen him at parties or in clubs. A pix might help. He said he didn't know about his photo/art work, that the name wasn't familiar in that context.

---Parties; Mickey/Judy, etc. "Lots of places, Westchester, NYC, Connecticut, Hamptons." That is, parties were held in many places. He couldn't say which ones he saw Judy at, but did see her on occasion, as he said previously. He also thought she might have been at one Howard Samuels also attended, but wasn't sure.

---Yes, he knew who Roy Cohn was, and yes there were parties at his place, and yes, he was there.

---Enoch (Bruce) Garrett, Process. "Oh, yeah, Enoch. I remember that name. I think I met him."

---Peter Mancusi: No go on '96 head and shoulders photo. DB said, "Sorry, it was 20 years ago, and I don't recognize him now. But he was like a little godfather, and if you can check, see if he drove a white Caddy in those days." Also: "He provided drugs for some of the parties. That's what I meant about dealing drugs with the Carrs."

---He didn't know Andrew Giordano ('95 era drug accomplice of Mancusi). I forgot to ask about a third 90s player with Mancusi named Bob Maher.

---Mexico/kids. DB said he'd heard that the Dr. Gajdusek crowd, etc. got kids from there for sex and some were later sacrificed. That's why he mentioned Mexico/Gajdusek on the phone. (He also mentioned DeGrimston at that time, said Process was in Mexico and DeG traveled all over the world). He said he thought NY area sources for kids had dried up, so they went to Mexico for some. Note: Bulldog had already confirmed DB on Gajdusek/Mexico.

---"Cosmo" nickname, mentioned on phone. "Last name was Kosmolski or something. He was from NYC and was called Cosmo."

---Andrew Gmitter, who lived on 10 Pulsifer, around the corner from Gajdusek in a building owned by Dr. G. DB says he didn't know him by name. Maybe a photo would help. On Alfonse Frasca: "Alfie." Knew an Alfie; north Yonkers or lower Westchester." Picture may help. (Maria Cortina was killed 100 yards from Alfonse's house in Elmsford, and we had young Cosmo Frasca living with the much older Andrew Gmitter in a Gajdusek-owned place at 10 Pulsifer in Yonkers, around the corner from Gajdusek's main house on Palmer Rd.

---Didn't know any of the Wyka brothers (names of people friendly with the Carrs in high school).

---Did remember Chuck Flood, "drugs and friend of the Carrs." Not in cult per se. (Flood had wanted to talk to MT; who will now follow up).

---Did not know Mickey Rose pal John Hainey. Did not know Brunhilde or Werner Graf (chuckled at Brunhilde's name, as in the comic strip witch Broom Hilda).

---Did not know any of the places in the Bronx, or names of the Hispanics, or "Black Joe" or Gypsy connected superficially, at least, to the Maria Cortina case. DB said, "It seems the police didn't look too hard." He also said he didn't know she was a hooker.

---He ID'd Maria's photo right away. He said, "This is Maria." He also asked about the origin of the mug shot. Told him shoplifting in Yonkers. On the other photo, he said her hair when he knew her was like Tony R. had sketched, not in the fluffed-out or teased style in the undated photo.

---ID'd the other sketch of the guy in Untermyer thusly: MT said, "the artist says this guy was named Pete. We've got about four of them in this case. Which one is it?" DB: "Looks a lot like Pete Perez to me."

---Did recognize the name of "Snowman" (Patty Snow), a male connected to Joseph Carozza (New Rochelle yacht murder, New Year's Eve '81). Snow was into drug dealing.

---Confirmed/clarified on Frank Signorelli (top suspect in New Rochelle sniper killing of 13-year-old Natalie Gallace and wounding of Susan Levy, 37). DB said Signorelli had been at Untermyer Park.

---DB knew Susan Levy from parties. She was into S/M and or lesbianism. He didn't know her estranged husband was a New Rochelle cop.

---Asked him about three girls who were assault victims of Norman. He didn't know 2, but the third, last name "Bravo" he did know. He said two possible first names; one was "Lisa," and the other MT forgot, but will ask again.

---The call to Borrelli the night DB was arrested was made by "the guy from the Post Office." Robert Bronner. Earlier in '96 talks, DB had eliminated Bronner. On hearing who made this call to Borrelli, MT laughed and said, "No wonder they tossed his place a few days later." (Postal supervisor told MT this in '87).

---Sharon Gude, of 35 Pine. Cann charged with unauthorized use of her car. DB knew who she was but said she wasn't involved.

---The yellow VW Cann was seen driving (Yonkers PD reports) was Wheat's. "It was an extra car and people used it now and then," DB said. This is also the car he drove on occasion while living at the Cassara home in New Rochelle in early '76---which the Cassaras told MT about back in '81.

---On Ace, and if kids were living with him in '76-77. DB said it was a small place, so he doubted it. He said there were "always a lot of people around Ace, so it's possible, but probably not." He again said he thought the Warburton Ave. place was Ace's, but couldn't swear it wasn't Whitey's or whatever and that Ace just used it.

---Roger Woods. "Yes. Wasn't he a playboy type? He was into gay stuff and a little occult stuff." (Woods, called Roger Flood in The Ultimate Evil, had told Kyle and Betty Rote at a business dinner way back in Sept. '77 that DB didn't act alone and was part of a satanic cult in Yonkers. At this time, nobody had even thought of a cult. Woods had a little too much to drink and said a few things he shouldn't have.

---the green car used in SOS was intermediate sized, dark green, and a sedan.

---ID'd Steven (Carlyn) Trachtman's pix right away. (Reeve Rockman in The Ultimate Evil). Said he was "around, into drugs and gay stuff and the occult. He had some involvement with the crowd." DB didn't get the name right away, but prompt ID on the face. Told the name he said, "Oh, yes," and went on to describe his role.

---Donovan did keep a log book (Book of Shadows, confirms Vinny again) and DB said Junior must have it now.

---The big meeting at Donovan's. DB said "ten to 12 people there, approximately." They were: DB; JPD, Sr.; JPD, Jr.; DeGrimston; Fay; Mary Ann (in and out of the room); Sperrazza; Spychala; Lars (mentioned in a previous visit); and Fripp.

There were maps, DB said. MT asked if Wheat was there. No. Mrs. Donovan? No. MT said, "There must have been someone else from the 22 (Yonkers)." He agreed, said he'd think about it. Also, he'd said previously about "a couple of people from Process/Connecticut." He didn't recall who; will think about it. It seems the total number there was probably about 12-14. He was clear on Fay: blonde, young, American, with DeG. And Mary Ann, reddish hair, older. He knew the difference.

---on "housecleaning" prior to Sisman killing. He heard something about that: Village, Brooklyn Heights. (confirms Vinny again). Didn't know who or how it was to be done. MT asked how he heard of this, the pipeline. MT asked: "Was this through someone like Charlie?" DB answered: "Yes, someone like Charlie." (It probably was in fact Charlie, small chance of Tons of Fun. Will follow-up).

---Bob Lowe was at the Freund scene. MT asked: Mentzer wasn't alone in NY. You said Bob Lowe was with him. Was Lowe also with Mentzer at Freund?" DB: "Yes."

---DB's apartment set-up at time of arrest courtesy of DB, Wheat, Michael and Dossenko. "Someone arranged for the van," DB said.

---DB said, "Not too much furniture, not difficult; middle of the night, out the back way of 35 Pine. Remote chance of being seen, and as far as is known, no one saw.

---DB confirmed that a paper bag had been rubbed on the fresh wall writing to make it appear older. This leads into a whole other area regarding Joquin, from whom this and other information originated, and whom DB today confirmed existed. Lots of fascinating info from Joquin, who said he knew the Carrs, and DB confirmed that was so. (That info is for another forum). DB said Joquin looked like he was from one of the islands; when told Joquin said he was Portugese. DB said, "Sure, he could have been Portugese." In general, this requires us to locate PI J.J. (Jordan) Stevens. Probably in Brooklyn or Long Island if still alive. That's where he was as of '87.

---Norman's car "almost certainly" used earlier at Donna Lauria scene. Mike Carr involved that night, too. Alwin Nickol not at crime scenes; he thinks Mike Carr did get a ticket nearby at some point.

---"Amy," the college-age or college girl from Long Island, described previously as "blonde, freckles" and as possibly being the Denaro shooter, was explained today by DB. He didn't see the shooting; she was there, as was Wheat. It was one of them. (He'd first said this a long time ago.) Amy was "the girlfriend of some big shot in the Donovan circle." MT asked (for a reason): "Was she Joe Mainiero's girlfriend?" DB said, "it's possible she was Mainiero's girlfriend." (Mainiero was from Long Island, and had a history of fooling around with younger girls, though he was married, but perhaps separated.)

MT knew about this girl for a long time, but only got her name recently when DB was told about a college girl from LI being killed with Sisman. He blurted: "AMY??" That's how the name was obtained.

---MT showed DB the sketch of VW driver. DB said, "Don't you know who that is?" MT said no, but you were there. That's not Rudy, is it? DB said, "No, it's Wheat." MT said: "SHE was there that night? DB: "Yes, and it was her Volkswagen." MT: "She didn't do this and you said it was Dossenko to cover up for her, did you?" DB: "No, he did it."

Now, the telephoned witness report said the shooter entered a "small, light colored car and sped away." The report didn't say what side of the car the shooter entered. Nor is possible to eliminate the idea that Wheat leaned forward in the driver's seat and Dossenko dove in the back seat and ducked down as the car sped away. In the dark, the other witness who nearly collided with the VW at the light could have mistaken Wheat for a male (perhaps just a simple presumption).

---Tried Molina pix again and Meehan's. Same as previous attempts. "Familiar" on Molina, but couldn't say with certainty, and same on Meehan. 75-90 percent sure: gay/parties/kids.

---Showed Frances "Petie" Loeb's picture, he said she looked familiar from a party around Rye. He couldn't come up with a name, and when told it, it meant zero to him. If he knew more, he wasn't saying. Of course, he might have seen a similar-looking woman who wasn't Petie at all. But knowing what we do, and knowing she maintained a home in nearby Purchase (right near Donovan---very near, in fact), it's very possible he did see Petie at a party in Rye (sex party). He said, I believe, some S/M and possibly Lesbian activities. (We know via Ace tape that her daughter, Ann, was into women).
