H. Leifer conversation with MPT.

Bilieto in L.I., and others, had confirmed the Wheaties nickname to them.

Remember Wheat in N.D., Feb. 1977. (She ~~traveled~~ ^{traveled} to see John)

Linda #3 told them that: John had started to wash the dishes, but left them half undone.

She took $5 from his wallet, but left 2 $5 bills and two #9 $1 bills. Missing after the death.

His box number was 902, he paid for six months in advance on it.

Michael had tried to convert her to scientology---to be better able to cope with death (the idea of it).

He had learned at Phoenix House in N.Y. about how to deal with drugs and alcohol.

DAVE HARTLEY CONVERSATION

There were some thefts of hosts from churches in Yonkers. Will ^{provide} ~~provide~~ data. A $10K stain glass window was stolen from St. Andrew's Church. A chalice was stolen from St. Vladmir's (chalice of St. Innocent). St. Vladmir's is Russian Orthodox.

TODAY paper, 2/26: Cemetery belonging to Holy Innocence Church in Pleasantville (All Souls Cemetery), was vandalized for second time in six months. More than 100 grave markers toppled, Delbert LeFebre, Pleasantville youth officer, said people involved singled out statues of the Virgin Mary and Crucifixes.
