

Formerly,
IN NYC on Canal St. (480...)

Shelter: Confirms a Peter Quinn employed 73-74, address 289 Warburton.
Catalano: "My boss told me he was a nut job. Banged up the gutters and all with rocks when fired, June 19, 1974. Had been hired Aug 8 1973. Quinn's middle initial is J.

Quinn's close pal, says Catalano, was a Danny Bonacci, 44 Buckingham Rd., Yonkers.

This is same address as ~~██████████~~ Michael Quinn, also reported to be a nut job from Yonkers Animal Shelter. Question: Is it same person? Or brother?

Add on GRANER:

was enrolled at Minot State College summer, 1977.
was a "transient" student from Sioux Falls.
Stayed in Minot until sometime in █ 78
Hometown listed as Reagan, N.D.

Benny Darchenko, is ~~pa~~ apparently "Benny the Whiz."
Barry Dosenko, is correct spelling of our guy.

Dosenko is a farmer, grows wheat and oats, and ~~██████████~~ ^{DuRum} Worked for a small construction outfit (his own) with Berg, called Three Tribes or Three nations. Also did logging. Head Indian from construction was called "J.C." Desanko from Butte, N.D. Berg went to a Colorado school in either Pueblo, Colo. Springs, or Boulder, possibly studying forestry.