

SOS INVESTIGATION: UPDATED WITNESS/"FLIPPER" LIST

AUG. 28, 1997 (Compiled for the investigating agency by M. Terry)
Status of each person is in italics at the end of their synopsis.

INTRODUCTION: Per informant statements and other evidence, all of these individuals are alleged to be either SOS cult members or associates---or to have been involved in (or with) the group in its pre-SOS days. Apparently, all are still living. The degree of guilt and knowledge varies among them---but all have differing extents of relevant information which can be applied toward building cases against the main targets of this investigation.

Some on this list allegedly had real-time knowledge of the cult's role in the SOS shootings as they happened, and at least three people noted herein are alleged to have actually been at SOS crime scenes. A few of those already interviewed have, all by themselves, corroborated the conspiracy's existence (in addition to DB's statements and the volumes of other evidence already in hand). Some on this list can also be useful in the Untermyer case. It is helpful to remember that other murders are also involved in this situation; therefore, significant evidence relating to other unsolved homicides also may be discovered.

The city where each of these people lived during the SOS era appears next to their names. To date, there are about 75 names of varying priority status on this list. As of August 28, just 12 of these---whose names appear first on the roster---have been interviewed, and follow-ups are necessary with virtually all of those. Unless otherwise noted, the "witnesses" are still in metro NY, in Westchester, or even in Yonkers itself in 1997.

Per informant statements and other data, the conspiracy was hatched in Westchester, specifically in the White Plains area and in Yonkers itself---in Untermyer and the garage behind 316 Warburton Ave., etc. The killers allegedly departed for the SOS shootings from Untermyer and the 316 Warburton garage.

---ACE BROWN. Yonkers. Pimp with much knowledge from 60s through SOS era. Info on kids/Untermyer/SOS/cult origins, rich names involved, etc. Saw DB meeting with his roommate, John DiFrenza, in a Yonkers coffee shop. Also stated John was involved with the cult and that John was at DB's apt. the day of DB's arrest and came home with DB's mail (part of a last-minute clean-up). DB confirms this is true. By itself, this Ace statement confirms the conspiracy. John DiF was later murdered in Yonkers, in a case that apparently wasn't related to the SOS case but did have ritual overtones. Also, back in '70 Ace told NYPD detectives about kids killed in Untermyer. (Interviewed 3-4 times: valuable data; much more to do with him. He has now retained a lawyer.)

---SUE CONWAY. Yonkers. Cult priestess/Untermyer/Van Cortlandt; involved since the '60s; much knowledge; true cult insider whose involvement spanned many years. Allegedly knew about SOS in real time, as the shootings were occurring. Also confirming the conspiracy all by herself, she has admitted she saw DB at Untermyer with "a group of people" heavy into black magic and also admitted she was once in DB's car in Yonkers. She is also among those who heard about kids killed in Untermyer in the pre-SOS years. Further, and of great significance, she had the correct name (never revealed to authorities or anyone by DB) of the person who cut DB's throat in prison in '79. She knew this person from Yonkers. (Conway was interviewed twice: has valuable data; much more to do with her.)

2. Witness list, 8/28/97

---JAMES D. CANN. Yonkers. Cult member/Untermyer/drove THE yellow VW on occasion in Westchester. Lived in DB's 35 Pine St. building. Allegedly involved in the Carr dog shooting on 4/27/77. Cann is also alleged to have had "real-time" knowledge of the SOS attacks. Appeared at his job at some point after DB's arrest waving a knife, looking for a gun, and stating he was afraid he'd be killed. Said: "It's going to be them or me," according to co-worker witness. Cann was driving the yellow VW on that occasion. (Interviewed twice; dodging all; has obtained a lawyer.)

---PETER QUINN. Yonkers. (and possibly his ex-wife Rudene and brother, Artie.) Quinn lived at 289 Warburton, near the Carrs, in a residence singled out by DB. Quinn, a former employee of the Yonkers animal shelter, was first targeted by a Yonkers arson investigator. Quinn hung up dogs and photographed them; and apparently also stole dogs for rituals. He was a cult member and half-brother of John DiFrenza, the now-murdered cult member who was a close friend of DB and who was Ace's roommate in the SOS years. Quinn was also a close pal of Sue Conway and others from the Ashburton/Mulford Gardens part of the cult crowd. (Interviewed once; admitted knowing the Carrs and admitted hanging out at Untermyer. Has obtained a lawyer. RUDENE QUINN, Pete's ex-wife, interviewed once. Provided impt. corroboration of DB regarding the relationship between the Carrs and Quinn.)

---BARBARA KASKA. Yonkers. (and possibly John DiFrenza's male friend she allegedly later lived with. Inexplicably, his name is still unknown.) Another very valuable witness, Barbara was involved on the fringes at Untermyer, admittedly had met DB, and was the "girlfriend" of Ace Brown's roommate John Di Frenza. (Barbara is another who confirms the conspiracy all by herself. Interviewed once; provided valuable data---as did Ace Brown---about John Di F being in the cult and having been at DB's apt. the day of his arrest. She added another guy was also there that day. DB confirms this, and states that second person was Richie Sperrazza. Barbara Kaska also saw John and DB together, speaking to one another in a "ritual code" language. Another who confirms the conspiracy all by herself. She also may have more to add.)

---DONALD SAVAGE. Yonkers. Postal employee in Yonkers during SOS era. Alleged cult member who knew DB and cultist Richie Sperrazza, and is believed to have been with them at Sperrazza's apt. on Xmas Eve '76, shortly before DB/Sperrazza shot the Neto dog at 18 Wicker St. Savage was actually turned in as an SOS suspect by the dad of his ex-girlfriend, Carol Cheshire. Savage lived at 39 Glenwood and Warburton. (Savage interviewed once; stated Cheshire hung out at Untemeyer. More to be done here. Also: on 8/22/97 DB confirmed Carol Cheshire as being part of the Untermeyer scene. Cheshire allegedly now in the Middle East.

3. Witness list, 8/28/97

---MARY ANN DOBRANSKY, Yonkers. Valuable witness. Traveled to Canada in about '70 (almost certainly via Process) with cultists Sue Conway and "Brother Ed" (Process title), who was a Yonkers resident now ID'd as RALPH MARCEL. Marcel was killed by a car in Florida on 6/15/81. Curious circumstances. In Montreal, Marcel, Conway and Ann admittedly met with French terrorists. (Ann interviewed once; very important data. May have more.)

---SUZANNE LEVY. New Rochelle. Ran a pet store in New Rochelle; ex-wife of NR cop Allen Levy. Much to say about Sue: allegedly at sex parties with cult members in Sound Shore area; most likely at Untermeyer a couple of times; seriously wounded in 11/77 New Rochelle sniper attack that killed 13-year-old Natalie Gallace. Shooting was three months after DB's arrest, at a time other "weak-link" killings were occurring. Levy ties right back to "Sunshine" (covered later) from the NE Bronx and Untermeyer---and to first SOS victim Donna Lauria's former and "obsessed" boyfriend, VINNY MINUTOLO, who was allegedly involved with the cult himself. Vinny was not only in the SOS picture, but Bronx sources put him into kid/animal porn. (Sue Levy interviewed once; some marginally helpful data. Should be seen again.)

---WAYNE CONWAY. Yonkers. Brother of priestess Sue. While not a cult member, he is very familiar with some of those involved. Admittedly saw DB in the Playroom bar on Nepperhan a few times, including shortly before his arrest. On that occasion, DB was talking to Marty the bartender, TN Chinitz; AKA Shapiro, currently Wayne's lover. DB confirms he knew Marty, stating he was "involved a lot with drugs (dealing) and a little bit with the occult." All true. Marty, covered later in this report, also knew 60s cult member Brother John Paul, an important link. That is, by knowing both DB and Brother John Paul, Marty spans the decades. (Wayne Conway was spoken to only once, and just very briefly, when he accompanied his sister, Sue, to an interview last winter. Wayne has much more knowledge.)

---"MICKEY ROSE." NYC. An AKA of someone who is an important player for many reasons. Heavily involved with Process, and also a pal of Michael Carr. Knew in real-time that Process was a major force behind the SOS shootings and many other atrocities. "Mickey" has confessed he arranged the '81 murders of key SOS figure Ron Sisman and co-ed Liz Platzman. ("Mickey," who is willing to testify, has been debriefed in depth. Crucial data.)

4. Witness list, 8/28/97

Queens - Brooklyn

---JOHN 'TINY' LENTINI. Bronx, Westchester. Biker who is an admitted satanic priest, a child pornographer, and a one-time bodyguard for key player Roy Radin---and also did bodyguard work for a key California figure: the late Mama Cass---whose sister Leah Kunkel, was a close friend of Liz Platzman, the co-ed who was murdered in '81 in Manhattan with major SOS player Ron Sisman. (Tiny arrested 6/97 on parole violations. Interviewed three times since then. Provided very helpful corroborating data, and also spoke of other murders. Much more can be done with him.)

---PETER 'DAMIEN' BURFORD. White Plains. DB and at least three other parties have ID'd Burford as being involved with the cult. DB had him by name and nickname; others by photo. The nickname "Tex" also apparently has been used with regards to Peter Burford. According to DB, two Burford brothers had ties to the group, the other being a younger brother of Peter "Damien." This is probably Gary Burford, killed in a Dutchess car wreck in June, 1980. However, there is another younger brother, Jeff, who is alive in Florida. The Burfords' mother was a "witch" who operated a shop very near the relevant Candle Light Inn in Greenburgh, a cult hangout. (Peter "Damien" Burford has been interviewed three times; he tried to claim informants mixed him up with his conveniently dead brother Gary. He claimed they were "identical." Photos show he lied. More to be done with Pete.)

NOT YET INTERVIEWED:

---MARTY CHINITZ (AKA SHAPIRO.) 2 Sunnyside Dr. Yonkers. Involved with cult members, and a drug dealer. Also a bartender at the Playroom. Before that, in the '60s, he worked at Rosie's on Warburton---the clearinghouse for the cult's kid prostitution enterprise. Has much knowledge spanning many years. That is: he knew both DB and key '60s witness Brother John Paul, and links the eras. Marty, per DB, "was involved a little bit with the occult and lot with drug dealing." (Not yet contacted.)

---RICHIE SPERRAZZA. Yonkers. Major player. Allegedly present at three SOS scenes, at least (Lauria, Freund and Moskowitz.) Also allegedly present at the infamous Westchester JPD meeting w/Process to plan SOS. Involved with DB in shooting the Neto family dog on the porch of 18 Wicker St. on Xmas Eve, '76. Sex criminal history. Stopped by Yonkers PD the day after DB's arrest and stated he knew DB and was afraid of being killed or implicated. Allegedly was at DB's the day of the arrest with John DiFrenza, and helped remove some last-minute items. (Not yet contacted. A prime target to flip. Very important.)

---CHARLIE HAUSER (Houser?), Westchester. Cult member; allegedly at SOS Freund scene; almost contacted MT in the early 80s to help but backed off due to fear. Very important, likely to cooperate if given a deal or immunity. On a prison visit in '81, was introduced by DB to key source "Vinny." (Have locations on several possible "Charlies." They have yet to be contacted.)

---JOHN MC CABE. Yonkers. A Yonkers cop during SOS and before. Violent, troubled, later gone from the PD. But as a cop, allegedly had knowledge as far back as 1970-71 that a cult was at Untermyer and that murders may have occurred there. McCabe then married WHEAT CARR in '78. In '79 he threatened to unleash his German shepherd at Queens D.A.'s investigators. Wheat and McCabe were later divorced. McCabe, under the influence of alcohol, once stated to a cop, to paraphrase: "I had to marry Wheat. I got involved in some real weird stuff and I had to marry her." McCabe is also related to another suspect, Tom Gurksnis, a pal of Mike Carr. Gurksnis allegedly was at the SOS Moskowitz scene.

A prime source states McCabe was not part of the cult's rituals. But others say they "wouldn't be surprised" if he was into its drug/sex operations. In the '80s, Yonkers police sources reported that McCabe had owned a .44 Bulldog---which Wheat may have used. (McCabe has not been interviewed yet.)

---WENDY KAPLAN. New York City. A well-known and admitted witch from the old Warlock Shop (Brooklyn Heights) and Magickal Childe (Manhattan) crowd. Wendy is alleged to have been on the SOS Carl Denaro shooting scene. Beyond that, she would have much knowledge of the entire occult/sex underground. Very valuable, a prime target to flip. (Not yet contacted.)

---ROBERT D. (TACO) GRADY. Yonkers. Alleged cult member; much knowledge from the 60s forward. Part of old Mulford Gardens/Lake Ave. scene. Co-owner of Unicorn bar on Lawrence St. in the SOS era, a hangout for some cult members, including DB, Sue Conway and the important Claire the witch (whose full name isn't known yet.) Grady was involved with DB/Michael Carr in Oct. '76 sniper wounding at Candle Light Inn, Greenburgh. Major insider, Grady allegedly knew the group was behind the ongoing SOS shootings in real time. Grady's brother, Joe, was then a Yonkers cop and a "silent partner" in Unicorn. (Robert Grady not yet contacted.)

---"THE TWISTED SISTERS" (HOOKER SISTERS). Yonkers. Still to be ID'd; two likely sisters have been singled out. These girls were young hookers who were involved w/cult at Untermyer. Saw much; can offer important testimony. They were "always at Untermyer and always stayed there late at night." DB drove them home from Untermyer once or twice. They lived in the Homefield section, near a section of St. Mary's cemetery. Several Yonkers police officers recall these girls, but can't remember their names. (Have names and locations of two likely candidates. They have yet to be contacted. One in NJ, the other in Florida.)

---CHARLIE PETTIGANO. Bronx. Alleged cult member at Van Cortlandt and Untermyer, joined group about '73 at Van Cortlandt; knew the Carrs and Sue Conway's pal "Claire the Witch." Told a future NYPD detective in '78: "We're in Atlanta now." This referred to Process, who just opened shop in Atlanta---shortly before Child Murders began there. Pettigano also told this future cop about "things" buried at Untermyer. (Not yet contacted.)

6. Witness list, 8/28/97

---SAM FORCELLI; ED EMBRY and wife "ANGEL" (Nicole); BOBBY ENGLES and girlfriend ANGIE (who may be Forcelli's sister); RAY HARRINGTON; TOM SMITH, and BILL FITZGERALD (who was murdered six days before DB's arrest in an alleged murder/suicide on Locust Hill Ave. in Yonkers.) All were from the old Mulford Gardens crowd, Yonkers. Much info, in varying degrees, can be gleaned from these people as all were affiliated with the cult in one way or another going back many years. (Fitzgerald is dead; none of the others have been contacted. Present locations of some not established; although Harrington---who is important---is currently in Kentucky. Harrington was a one-time boyfriend of cult associate Dawn Koons, a Yonkers barmaid (Lake Ave.) who was murdered in Bakersfield, California in early '79. Unsolved case.)

---BROTHER JOHN PAUL. Early cult member, involved w/John Carr in the early 60s in high school. Initiated at Untermyer, April '61. Was later a teen prostitute---recruited for this activity by the cult. Slept with some high rollers in NYC. Also, way back in the summer of '72, John Carr told him about kids killed/buried at Untermyer, and drew him a map. (This was a year or two after Ace Brown gave the identical info to NYPD detectives.) John Paul split NY soon after this '72 talk with old buddy John Carr.

John Paul knew Marty Chinitz from Rosie's, cult kid prostitution liaison Lou Bernacchia of Yonkers and Rosie's, and others from the important early years of the group, including Walter "Scout" Deyo, a convicted pedo and close pal of John Carr. Deyo, who was also in the cult, was another known by DB in the late '70s.

John Paul also has first-hand testimony about early rituals and about two kids murdered and buried in NW Yonkers in '68---in a then-wooded area that was virtually across the street from the home of alleged cultist and child molestor Dr. William J. Garvin. John Paul also photographed several NW Yonkers homes allegedly occupied by '60s cult members.

He also provided info relating to Sacred Heart HS teacher Karen Wahlstrom's death in Van Cortlandt Park on a satanic holiday: April 24, '65. (Interviewed many times by M. Terry since '92. Also interviewed by a couple of police officers. Has provided much important data. Has lived in the midwest since early '73.)

---"SUNSHINE" (FLO MANDRACCHIA). NE Bronx. Important player. Hung out with the cult at Untermyer. ID'd as "Sunshine" by the non-involved "Untermyer artist," and also ID'd as "Sunshine" by a top prison source who met her via DB at a prison "festival" in '81, when she was visiting another, still unnamed inmate.

7. Witness list, 8/28/97

Sunshine also later ID'd by various Bronx sources. She dated Frank Signorelli, whom New Rochelle police say was the unindicted sniper who killed 13-year-old Natalie Gallace and wounded Sue Levy (then 37) in Nov. '77. Signorelli also appeared at Untermyer---and had "a thing" for Flo's daughter, who was about 13 in '77. Signorelli died of a heart attack in jail in about '80. Was in for attempted murder of a black named Charles Gordon, whom Signorelli accused of dating Flo "Sunshine" Mandracchia.

Signorelli was an SOS cult affiliate and was once related by marriage to Carol Gallace, mother of Natalie, who was killed when Sue Levy was wounded. Mrs. Gallace wrote to MT that Signorelli was also "a good friend of Fred Cowan," the Neo-Nazi killer from New Rochelle who was a cult affiliate, but not a member. This chain of Sunshine, Signorelli, Levy, Minutolo etc. may well tie to the unsolved murder in New Rochelle of cult affiliate Joseph Carozza on New Year's Eve, '81. ("Sunshine" not yet contacted.)

---"DOC" (JOHN VARIO). NE Bronx. Untermyer Park cult associate. Along with Sunshine, first ID'd by the "artist" at Untermyer. Doc, like Sunshine, lived in the Donna Lauria neighborhood, and dealt crystal meth there in the mid-70s. (Not yet contacted.)

---"EGGS." NE Bronx. "Eggs" was also called "Noodles," per an official Bronx source. He is almost certainly Von Muller (or Mueller), DB's friend from childhood days. Involved in the cult. The "artist" once drove him back to the Bronx from Untermyer in June of '76. Brother John Paul also had met him back in '69 or so, and stated he was part of the "Co-Op City cult crowd."

It is believed Muller's family owned the old Pelham Bake Shop on Buhre Ave., not far from Donna Lauria's address of 2860 Buhre. Muller was still friendly with DB after DB returned from the Army in June, '74 and moved to 2161 Barnes Ave., Bronx, where he lived until moving to the Cassara home in New Rochelle in Feb. '76.

Muller likely played a big role in introducing DB to the cult. Not yet known if Eggs was at an SOS scene. DB is protective of him. (Muller was well-known by a Yonkers cop who grew up with him and DB, etc. Neither Muller or the cop have yet been contacted; Muller's current location not yet established.)

---CHARLES E. WHITE. Connecticut. A Connecticut bank robber in '84; involved with the cult in the 70s. Was at Untermyer, bars, parties, etc. with cult members. Friends with the Carrs. ID'd by Conway and other sources, and MT first got his plate at the Carr home in late '77 and again in '79. His plate was also taken at John Carr's wake, 2/78. White also known by a witness in Connecticut, who placed him with another cult member, BILLY OAKES. Remotely possible White attended Bronx Community College at same time as DB, Spring '75, and been in one of his classes. Student ID# on hand. (Now in Connecticut. Not yet contacted.)

8. Witness list, 8/28/97

---BILLY OAKES. Connecticut. Billy was a former Bronx resident who lived in the Middleton, Ct. area during SOS. Worked in a Connecticut psychiatric hospital and played in a band in Connecticut with the above-mentioned Charlie White. Billy made an important statement implicating himself to a non-involved witness in Fall, '76---a witness (Bob Willet) who can testify against Oakes. Billy Oakes is not believed to have been at any SOS scenes. (Not yet contacted. Currently located in western U.S.)

---PEDRO "PETE" PEREZ. Yonkers. Pete was a cult member who was not at SOS scenes, as he ran into other problems just before SOS began. ID'd and drawn 6/76 by the "Untermyer artist," Pete was a very close friend of major SOS player NORMAN SILBERSTEIN. Pete subsequently went to jail, along with Norman's sister, PATRICIA, for the '76 Mount Vernon murder of an ex-boyfriend of Ms. Pat Silberstein. Norman was a major suspect in that murder, too, but neither Pete or Pat would implicate him. Patricia Silberstein herself had interactions with the cult, and was actually in DB's junior high school class in the Bronx years before. Pete Perez's two brothers also can most likely be used as witnesses in this case, as both have knowledge of certain relevant events. (Neither Pete's brothers nor Pete himself have been contacted yet.)

---ALFONSO CAROZZA. Yonkers. Carozza operated pizza joints on White Plains Rd. in the Bronx (relevant area) and later in New Rochelle. During SOS he lived at 22 Wicker St. in the Pine St. neighborhood. He was a cousin of Joseph Carozza, who was murdered on his yacht in a New Rochelle marina on New Year's Eve, '81. Unsolved case. DB, along with others, had been on Carozza's yacht. There is physical evidence of the relationship between Alfonso and Joe Carozza: at one point Joseph underwrote a loan to Alfonso for the purchase of an oven for the Bronx pizza place.

It is strongly suspected there are big-time drug links in the Carozza camp---possibly even tied to the later "Pizza Connection" case. Also in this part of the picture is Patty "Snowman" Snow, a New Rochelle coke dealer and auto shop owner. The Susan Levy/Gallace/Signorelli/Minutolo/Sunshine chain also may tie in here---and probably does. Alphonso lived at 22 Wicker, as did cult associate Robin D'Acutis. It's possible they lived together in this two or three family house. (Alfonso not yet contacted.)

---BILLY COHEN. Wappingers Falls. Billy was a cult associate and fringe member who is said not to have been involved in the SOS case itself and to have removed himself from the group at some point before DB's arrest. Billy was a nut job whose father was an official in Sheet Metal Workers Local 38 (or 13) out of Peekskill. Billy worked construction with DB in White Plains, Fall '76/Winter '77. Co-workers told MT that DB and Billy were very close pals and once left work together to get a shep at an animal shelter. Verified by DB. It was the Elmsford shelter. (Billy not yet contacted.)

9. Witness list, 8/28/97

---ALWIN NICKOL. NE Bronx. Nickol was a cult member and close friend of major SOS player Norman Silberstein. Nickol was with Norman in Manhattan on 6/12/77 (at the height of SOS) when they were busted with a loaded .44 Charter Arms Bulldog---the type of weapon used in most of the SOS attacks. At the time, Norman lived right around the corner from DB---on Glenwood Ave., Yonkers. Norman and Nickol were arrested in a very significant auto---a tan Ford livery service car registered to Norman's then-wife, Linda. Norman later tried to ditch this car in the Hudson at the JFK marina in Yonkers on 7/22/77, nine days before the SOS Moskowitz/Violante attack. Norman had reason to try to dump this auto: it allegedly was used at several SOS crime scenes.

At the time of their 6/12/77 arrest with the .44 Bulldog, Nickol actually told cops he was acquainted with SOS victim Valentina Suriani, who'd been murdered 7 weeks before in the NE Bronx. Source information holds that Nickol himself was not at any SOS crime scenes. However, source info, verified by DB, also holds that Nickol was nonetheless a significant cult member, and was actually DB's "controller" and was tied in more with Process than with the Westchester "22." (Nickol now in NJ; not yet contacted.)

---ANGEL VASQUEZ (or Vazquez). Yonkers. "Angel" may be a nickname. He lived on Lawrence and Radford Sts. during the SOS era, and hung out at a bar in that area called the Eagle's Nest on South Broadway. It is certain he also dropped in at the Unicorn on Lawrence, a cult hangout co-owned by major player Robert "Taco" Grady. Angel worked at a fish market on New Main St., and was at DB's apartment on occasion to pick up hard drugs. Angel also drank with DB now and then in a bar on or near New Main and Park Hill Ave. Info on Angel originally came from various non-involved sources; and he's now a confirmed cult affiliate. (Much knowledge; not yet contacted; current location not established.)

---CLAIRE THE WITCH. TN not yet known, although Sue Conway certainly knows it. Claire also spans the decades, known by Conway, Charles Pettigano, DB, and other sources. In the 60s, Claire hung out at Untermyer and Van Cortlandt, and with the "Jimmy O'Toole crowd" (cult) on Lake Ave. Claire could figure into the Van Cortlandt Wahlstrom case. In the SOS era, she lived in the Riverdale Ave. and Post St. area, and Sue Conway acknowledged meeting up with her at the Unicorn on Lawrence St. (Conway probably knows Angel Vasquez, too.) Claire described as heavy into the black arts, and very good looking. Long blond hair then, and large breasts. (Not yet located or fully ID'd.)

---STEVE HIRSCH. Yonkers. A known devil-worshipper who lived at 632 Warburton during the SOS era and was allegedly involved with the cult. The depth of his role is still to be determined. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet firmly established.)

10. Witness list, 8/28/97

----ANNA LISA JOGIS. NYC and either Piermont in Rockland or Englewood, NJ. A nurse who later worked at Westchester Med Center in Valhalla, Jogis was a girlfriend of major SOS figure PJ O'Shaughnessy (who was then a Yonkers cop). She certainly knows information relevant to this case. More must be obtained on her. (Not yet contacted; exact current location not established.)

---FRAN DRESSLER (or similar spelling). Another girlfriend of PJ, Fran's correct name and other info are in Queens D.A. files. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet established.)

---PETER GARVIN. Yonkers. Son of the relevant late Dr. William J. Garvin. Peter is believed to have had interactions with cult members, perhaps restricted to sex/drugs. More info on him will be obtained. He's currently in Dutchess County. (Not yet contacted.)

---"WOODY." Involved with the cult, hung out at the Candle Light Inn in Greenburgh with some of the members, including DB and Mike Carr. Said to have had stringy black hair in the SOS days. TN probably is AL RIDDETT, Yonkers, who was called "Woodsy" and was part of the old Mulford Gardens cult crowd. (Not yet contacted.)

---LOU BERNACCHIA. Yonkers. Now about 71 years-old. Was cult liaison regarding child prostitution enterprise in NYC and locally. Operated out of Rosie's "Town and Country" bar on Warburton Ave. in the early-mid 60s. (Still on Fairview St., Yonkers. Not yet contacted.)

---JOQUIN. Yonkers. There is still a bit of confusion to straighten out, but this appears to be Joquin Gancalo, who lived at 18 Wicker St. (above the Neto family) during the SOS era. If so, he was on the fringes of the cult and involved in sex parties and/or drugs with certain group members. (Not yet contacted.)

---"RO." Yonkers. This nickname appears to be that of Gail Shebroe, a girlfriend of Wheat Carr who lived on DeHaven Drive, near Untermyer, during the SOS era. More info on "Ro" will be obtained. (Not yet contacted; current location not established.)

---FRANCISCO 'FRANKIE' PEREZ. Bronx. He was the superintendent's assistant during the time DB lived at 2161 Barnes Ave. Bronx, from late '74 to Feb. '76. It is distinctly possible the infamous "floating coven party" at which DB got in deep with the group in Spring '75 was held in Perez's basement apartment at 2161 Barnes. More data on Perez will be obtained. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet established.)

---QUENTIN BEAVER. Yonkers. Quentin Beaver was a middle-aged gay individual who lived in North Yonkers and allegedly was involved in sex parties with members of the SOS cult. Beaver was a well-known community theatre actor and a member of the St. Mary's

Players in downtown Yonkers. He may have had some involvement in that capacity (depending on the chronology) with the old Yonkers Playhouse. Beaver later was part owner of an old church in upstate Salem, NY, near Glens Falls, which he used as a summer community theatre, and maybe for other reasons.

Brother John Paul states that people from the Yonkers Playhouse were involved in the cult in the '60s, and it was through this means (and one other) that Jayne Mansfield (who was absolutely a heavy occultist) attended Untermyer rituals while appearing at the Playhouse in about '64. Brother JP states that rituals occasionally occurred in the basement of the Playhouse because it was an old church before becoming the Strand theatre (and subsequently the Playhouse). Brother JP also says rituals were sometimes held in old catacombs or vaults beneath St. John's Episcopal church near the Playhouse in Getty Square. (Beaver has not yet been contacted.)

---CARL BAUER. Yonkers. Apparently the son of the late Albert Bauer, who was an alleged child molestor and cult member in the '60s. Young Carl currently has the license plate "WITCH-1" or "WITCH-13," which speaks for itself. (Not yet contacted.)

---JACK MINIHAN, Yonkers. Minihan was one of those who frequented the Untermyer cult scene with Sue Conway and Ralph "Brother Ed" Marcel in the old days; and DB terms Minihan's name "very familiar" from the SOS era. (Not contacted yet.)

---WALTER 'SCOUT' DEYO. Yonkers. Gay sexual predator and long-time cult member from Lake Ave. area of NW Yonkers. Close pal of John Carr in high school days. Another one who spans the decades, he was known by both DB and Brother John Paul. Present at Brother JP's cult initiation in Untermyer in '61; charged with sodomy of underaged boys in '62; quite possibly involved in the Karen Wahlstrom (teacher) case in Van Cortlandt in '65. (Deyo is currently in Arizona; not yet contacted.)

---CATHERINE BLACKWELL. Yonkers. ID'd by Bronx source as a witch who frequented Van Cortlandt and Untermyer rituals for many years. Prime prison source says there was a female named Blackwell or Blackburn on the fringes of the SOS cult crowd. So, it's probably Catherine. (Now in Yonkers. Not yet contacted.)

---SUSAN LABASCHIN(D). 240 E. Palisade in Englewood, NJ in the SOS era. Confirmed cult affiliate. MT discovered her during '80 search of Yonkers Animal Shelter adoption records, which showed she obtained a German shep on April 23, '77. Has a '53 DOB. May know very much: SOS Breslin letter was mailed from Englewood (from a mailbox at the corner of Lorraine/Mrytle) and DB states cult members had access to a townhouse in Englewood---maybe hers. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet established.)

12. Witness list, 8/28/97

---JANN GAMBER, AKA Gambol and Goldstein. Yonkers. Lived at 119 Orchard St. during SOS years. Her name first surfaced via a Yonkers arson investigator years ago. She's now confirmed as a cult affiliate with knowledge of the players and interactions. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet established.)

---ROBIN D'ACUTIS. Yonkers. About 19 in the SOS era. Lived at the very relevant two-or-three-family 22 Wicker St. Not a cult member per se, apparently. But said to "know things" about interactions and people involved. That certainly makes sense, as she was living in the same house as (and maybe with) cult affiliate Alfonso Carozza. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet established. A witness told MT DB carried groceries into 22 Wicker for her. DB confirms this.)

---PETER PIOPPO. Westchester/NYC. Known as "Peter P" to cult members, Pioppo operated "Studio P" in lower Manhattan. He was a photographer and pal of Michael Carr. He has since achieved some degree of recognition, having taken photos for a cookbook written by a NY Times food critic. Currently in Mt. Kisco and Manhattan, Pioppo was not a cult member, but certainly can put people together in the sex and drug scene. (Not yet contacted.)

---ROGER WOODS. Yonkers. Professional guy and "playboy" type who lived at 28 Chatfield in East Yonkers in SOS years. Allegedly at sex/drug parties with cult members. Roger made an extremely incriminating statement about DB being involved in a Yonkers cult that participated in the SOS murders to two credible witnesses at a time no one even gave the cult angle a thought: Sept. '77, just a month after DB's arrest. Currently in Ct. (Not yet contacted.)

---COOKIE. Gay male Hispanic with Westchester roots, was in Clinton Prison in '80-81. Knew relevant things. A female Westchester lawyer named Grace Henley (Chappaqua) knows his TN. (Not yet contacted.)

---FRANCISCO 'FRANKIE' POLONCO. Manhattan. He lived on W. 136th St. in the SOS era, and his plate was taken at Michael Carr's wake in October, '79. Polonco's involvement has not been fleshed out fully, but it is probably limited to sex and drugs. (Not yet contacted; current location not established.)

---CHARLES MC INTOSH. Upstate NY. A major player in his own right who was not involved in SOS per se, Charlie was involved with the Manson crowd at communes in Taos, New Mexico in late '68, by which time Manson had already become involved with Process. McIntosh intermingled with some SOS people in NY in summer-fall '75, before being busted upstate for a Halloween '75 kidnap/murder. He's been on parole since about '90, reporting in to Troy, NY it is believed. There may be leverage on him, due to his still-ongoing parole status, and he likely possesses a wealth of relevant info which spans decades and coasts. (Not yet

helpful data. (But neither Paulie nor the retired NYPD detective have yet been contacted by current working detectives.)

---SAMORA RAMOS. Yonkers. A voodoo/Santeria priestess who hung out around Ashburton Ave. and lived above the Mango Bar (New Main St.?) at the time of an arson there in about '75. Was considered a suspect in that matter. Later lived on Pier St. A top source says Samora was "around the scene" and would know some information, at least from a "fringe" position, that relates to associations among relevant individuals in this case. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet established.)

---MICHAEL TAKAMATSU. Yonkers. Lived at 51 Ashburton in the SOS era; allegedly involved in voodoo. He was known by sources in this case, and could be considered a fringe player who would have information regarding people and associations.

---TZIPORAH SCHWARTZ (or Schwartzman). NYC. Known as "Lady Tziporah," she was a fixture with the Magickal Childe occult shop crowd in Manhattan. Knew people in the SOS circle, and was also an associate of the relevant NYC witch Wendy Kaplan. (Kaplan allegedly was at SOS Denaro scene.) Tziporah was also allegedly the "fag hag" of one Ted Beasley, who lived on Amsterdam Ave. near Columbia U. in the SOS era. Tziporah also was apparently close to Bernice D., DB's girlfriend of sorts. There is also a possibility Tziporah went to Columbus High in the Bronx at the same time as DB. In the early '90s, Tziporah was still conducting witchcraft classes at the Magickal Childe. (Not yet contacted.)

---SUSAN BRODY. NYC. Susan Brody, then and now involved in the art world in Manhattan, first surfaced in the notable 1975 ATF Flickenger report about segments of the US occult underground. In that report, ATF asked NYPD Intelligence about Susan, and received confirmed reports of her role in the occult underworld. Sources in this SOS matter report Susan's name as "very familiar," and they state they are basically certain Susan was at sex parties in Westchester which included members of the SOS cult. There is a possibility she is related to a then (and maybe now) NYU professor named Steve Brody, whom top NYC cult sources put heavily into "the scene." (Not yet contacted.)

---KIM D. REILLY. NE Bronx. Reilly, still in the Bronx, works for key SOS figure Vinny Minutolo---.44 victim Donna Lauria's former and "obsessed" boyfriend. Reilly also knows Flo "Sunshine" Mandracchia, who was involved with the SOS cult and dated the late Frank Signorelli---the top suspect in the 11/77 Gallace/Sue Levy sniper attack in New Rochelle (covered earlier.) Reilly clearly provides a direct link between some very pertinent players in this case. (Not yet contacted.)

---JOANNE CONWAY. North or South Salem area. Outside sources told MT in early '82 that Joanne had been on Joseph Carozza's

> Pulling

15. Witness list, 8/28/97

yacht in New Rochelle just an hour or two before he was murdered there on New Year's Eve, '81. A prime source involved in the SOS cult says Joanne was known by the group and had some interactions with it. Not known if she's related to Sue Conway. (Joanne's not yet been contacted; current location not yet established.)

---TIMOTHY CONWAY. South Salem/Pound Ridge area. May be related to Joanne. A top source says Tim was also involved at some level with the SOS group. Of significance, Tim was among those busted by the Eastern District in a major drug smuggling enterprise in August, '83. Among the others arrested was Ian Brierly, a rock musician from Britain who was the ex-wife of singer Marianne Faithfull---who had been involved with Process in England in the mid-late 60s. Process was ensconced in South Salem/Pound Ridge in the SOS era---from 73-78---very near Tim Conway's residence.

This will all tie in with Keith Richards' (Rolling Stones) witch girlfriend Anita Pallenberg, who was living with Keith in North Salem in '79 when a young boy was found shot dead in Anita's bedroom there. Keith was on tour with the Stones at the time, and the death was either ruled accidental or a suicide.

This chain will link up because Marianne Faithfull was Mick Jagger's girlfriend, and knew Anita well, at the time she was involved with the Process---who, lo and behold, just happened to be in South Salem during the SOS years of the '70s.

It should also be remembered that there were satanic rituals occurring in this specific North Salem/Ridgefield locale at the time, and scorch marks were said to have been found on the Pallenberg property. A convent of nuns nearby was also terrorized by rituals occurring near their property; and a Connecticut cop was attacked when he stumbled onto an outdoor ritual on the Ridgefield/North Salem border.

There may be a wealth of evidence in Westchester and Eastern District case files, including possible connections to major player Roy Radin. (Tim Conway not yet contacted, or located.)

---STEVEN CARLYN TRACHTMAN. Forest Hills, Queens. Drugs, gay sex, professional type who had a lot of personal problems in the SOS era and ended up at Phoenix House for drug counseling; as did Michael Carr. Trachtman ID'd as muling drugs to John Carr in Minot, ND. (Not yet contacted.)

---DR. DANIEL CARLTON GAJDUSEK. Yonkers. Nobel winner from 114 Palmer Road, sentenced in Maryland in Spring '97 on two child sex counts, to which he pled guilty in 2/97. Involved with the cult; pal of Ace; took photos of Untermyer gardens, etc. May be a major player in that he brought kids to the US from overseas. He also may have dealt with Process bringing in kids from Mexico. Dr. G had big ties in the upscale pedo community, and also was at one time a boy scout counselor in NW Yonkers, at which time he may have met Walter "Scout" Deyo and others involved in this group from the early years forward. (Dr. G is doing 18 months in jail. Not yet contacted; will be evasive. Of interest: his attorney also repped CIA spy Aldrich Ames. Coincidence?)

---DR. KUNO SCHWARZ. Yonkers. Like the late Dr. William J. Garvin of N. Bway, there is physical evidence on N. Bway's Kuno-- and the same physical evidence at that. Which is: his Long Island summer home's phone number appeared in DB's phone records. Yonkers police sources report nothing would surprise them about Kuno. Note: Speaking of Garvin, police sources believe there is probably a record somewhere showing Garvin was suspended, censured or whatever by the AMA or the Board of Regents for writing fake drug prescriptions for "hippies." (Cultists.) (Kuno has not yet been contacted.)

---MATT CIMBER. This is a longshot, and not a true priority at this point. Cimber was Jayne Mansfield's last husband; he was also her business manager (Jayne was killed in a hideous auto wreck outside New Orleans on 6/29/67.) To the point regarding Jayne and rituals in Yonkers: Matt Cimber grew up in Yonkers, attended Roosevelt High, and maintained some sort of office or crash pad at 40 N. Broadway in the '60s. He was clearly in a position to know about underground activity and cult leaders in Yonkers in those days. (Probably won't cooperate, and information goes back in time to the cult's early years, but at some point could prove relevant to 70s activities.)

NOTE: THERE ARE A NUMBER OF OTHERS WHO ALSO MAY POSSESS RELEVANT DATA. THEIR NAMES WILL BE ADDED TO THIS LIST AS NECESSARY.

---In addition to all the above, there are numerous 70s license plates to be run, which requires a trip to Albany archives. These plates were obtained at the wakes of John and Michael Carr, in the Pine St. neighborhood, near Untermyer, etc. More witnesses and evidence can be gleaned from this list when it is obtained.

There are also various significant case files and records to be obtained, along with other relevant data on individuals, cases, and so forth. Some of these files are in Yonkers; others in various Westchester jurisdictions; a couple in Fed archives; one with NYS Police in Fishkill; another in Queens DA's office.

PARTIAL LIST/NON-INVOLVED WITNESSES

8/28/97

---Chuck Flood. Yonkers. Friend of the Carrs, involved in drugs. Also known by DB. Not a cult member; but has some relevant info. Had offered to talk to MT some years ago. (Not yet contacted. Last known address, in about '93, was at 245 Rumsey Rd. Yonkers.)

17. Non-involved Witness list, 8/28/97

---Ann Steel or Steele. Manhattan. Crucial witness. Told NYPD in '77 that she saw DB at Process Manhattan Hqs. with "Father Lars" of the Process. DB confirms he was indeed there with Lars and others. (Not yet contacted. Apparently still in Manhattan.)

---Linda Harrison. Ex member of Process. Crucial witness. Stated on national TV in '92 that she saw Michael Carr at a mid-'70s Process meeting in Chicago. Also stated on air that she was convinced DB was simply a hit man for Process. Told MT the same thing off the air, including her "certainty" she'd met Michael at the Chicago chapter meeting. (Was in California in '94.)

---Anna Collins (or Thomas) from the Bronx Post Office. Potentially a very important witness. Worked there with DB in '77, very close friend of his. Saw DB meet conspirators after work, but didn't know what was up till DB's arrest. (Not yet contacted. Said to have married a "Quinn" or "Quigley" later on.)

---Robert Bronner. Bronx Post office with DB. Another close DB pal on the job. Bronner phoned NYPD right after DB's arrest to ask if he was implicating anyone else in the shootings. Strongly suggests Bronner saw/heard things that he put together after DB's capture. CAUTION: Bronner's father was on the SOS task force. (Not yet contacted. He is believed to be in Orange or Rockland.)

---Charles Kortleven. Told NYPD in '77 that he knew DB from Bronx auxiliary days, and later saw him (in SOS era) around 241 St. and White Plains Rd. Significant area re: Silberstein, Nickol, Sperrazza, etc. Also significant in terms of Process: Kortleven stated to cops that DB then "possessed and wore Nazi insignia." Has a sheet from NYC. (Current location not yet established.)

---John Weiland. Yonkers. Important witness on James Cann driving THE yellow VW. Also stated to cops that Cann was fearful of being killed and said it would "be them or me." Cann's comments came during the time post-DB arrest when other murders were occurring. (Not yet contacted. Current location not yet established.)

---Kevin Griffin. Griffin was the bartender at the Candle Light Inn who tossed DB, Michael and "Bobby" (Grady) out of the place minutes before the shots were fired into the bar by the boys in October, '76. Griffin also stated "Bobby" shot dogs; and Griffin also knew "Donnie, Steven and Woody." Griffin also told MT that he saw the boys in the yellow VW on occasion, and that "they used to talk about going over to Untermyer Park." Griffin also stated that it was Wheat Carr who shot out the clock in the Candle Light one night. (Not yet contacted. Current location not established.)

---Jack Tracy (or Treacy or Tracey.) Owner of the Candle Light. Was very evasive years ago, but undoubtedly knows much. He also may be the Jack Tracey who owned Jack Tracey's Schwinn/Columbia bike store at 298 S. Broadway, Yonkers in the old days, and then later on McClean. If so, that could make him even more interesting. (Not yet contacted; current location not yet known.)

---Jeff Hartenberg, close friend of DB in Co-Op City days. DB states Jeff saw him on a yacht in New Rochelle during the SOS days. Jeff was on another boat. DB says the boat he was on was none other than Joseph Carozza's, The SAARC. (Ironcially, that's almost "Carrs" backwards.) (Now in Delaware. Not yet contacted.)

---Walter S., Bronx. Walter is allegedly an eyewitness to the SOS Suriani-Esau double murder, Bronx, April 17, '77. Didn't come forward then because he was stealing a car at the time. Walter's statement from many years ago was bounced off DB, who says it's essentially correct. (Walter says he saw two-three cars involved; and that he saw DB walk two blocks east from the shooting scene and then pass off the .44 to someone in a lead car; and then DB climbed into the passenger side of a second car.)

---Tony R., the Untermyer Artist. Crucial and non-involved. Hung out with various cult members at Untermyer for a few weeks in June, '76, just before SOS began. Stopped hanging out when they tried to recruit him and talked of animal sacrifice, etc. Saw "Eggs," "Doc," "Sunshine," "Teresa from Hastings or Dobbs Ferry," etc. Also saw John Carr there. Actually sketched Ken McNaughton from Process and Maria Cortina, who was "always with Ken" and who was murdered in Elmsford two months after DB's arrest. He also sketched Pete Perez and, by luck, JPD, the main Westchester leader who seldom visited Untermyer.

The artist did not see DB there, and he shouldn't have, as DB was away in Florida and Texas for much of the month. He didn't see Wheat there either---and shouldn't have, as she was down south with DB then. The artist also says he was asked for "an evil alphabet" by John Carr, and then provided one. The artist, who has a copy of this lettering, states he believes it was later used in the famous SOS letter to Breslin. (It looks right).

---Operators, Carr's Answering Service. Years ago, one of these women told Mrs. Maria Neto (18 Wicker) and her sister Doris that DB had known the Carrs and even dated Wheat Carr once. Another operator told a N. Tarrytown detective that the Carr brothers used to "dress like priests" in the house. (Sure, satanic priests.) Another told a Yonkers detective the same thing. (No further info on these operators.)

---The Neto Family. 18 Wicker St., Yonkers. Victims of a fireboming on 5/13/76 and dog shooting on XMAS Eve, '76. The Netos' told MT in 8/97 that they used to see DB walk down Wicker St. and cut into the woods just west of the aqueduct---which led right to the Carr yard and garage. Very important testimony. Their niece also told Gannett's Bill Varner the same thing. Mr/Mrs. Neto also told MT they saw a white car with its engine running and headlights on waiting on Warburton the night their dog was shot. They state the shooter that night (it was DB) cut into the woods, ran (a familiar route) through the Carr yard and emerged on Warburton. There, a car waited for the shooter at the corner of Warburton and Wicker and then sped off. (This car, we know, was DB's.) The Netos' info shows there were two people involved---which corroborates what DB has stated. And thus, also via DB, we further know that second person was Richie Sperrazza.

---Yellow VW witnesses. There are several of these, and they put DB, Michael Carr and Wheat Carr behind the wheel in Westchester. These witnesses include Yonkers and NYPD cops; Steve Cassara, son of DB's New Rochelle landlords; a former lawyer and two secretaries of that law firm; and Candle Light bartender Kevin Griffin. In addition, John Weiland saw James Cann driving it after DB's arrest. DB, on video, has now also stated the VW was the Carrs'.

---Rubin Anthony. Yonkers. A crucial witness who told cops DB occasionally hung at a biker joint on Ravine/Point St. in the neighborhood. DB confirms this. Rubin also stated that 4 days before his arrest, DB was in the biker place asking for "Micki Carr." That's Wheat's nickname, and Rubin couldn't have dreamed that one up. By the way, other witnesses, including Yonkers cops, confirm that Wheat hung with the biker crowd. She also had a motorcycle license in the SOS years---as did at least six or seven other players. (Rubin Anthony currently in Mississippi.)

---SOS witnesses. Though not directly related to the current investigation at this time, they may enter the picture at a future date. These witnesses include, from the Moskowitz/Violante scene in Brooklyn: Tommy Zaino, Cacilia Davis, Mary Lane, and several yellow VW witnesses, including the VW chaser and one couple who saw the VW arrive and saw two people climb out of it. From the Voskerichian scene, Queens: Amy Korman and her brother, and Ed Barlow. From the Freund scene, Queens: Mary Hart, and John Diel (Christine Freund's boyfriend).

From the Lauria scene, Bronx: Jody Valente, who was wounded when Donna was shot (she knows much more than she's said), and Donna's father, Mike Lauria; from the Lomino/DeMasi shooting, Queens: there are a couple of witnesses; from Placido/Lupo at the Elephas, Queens: there are a few witnesses, including the one who saw the "sandy-haired man with the mustache" flee the scene with his auto lights out. From Suriani/Esau, Bronx, we have at least Walter S., noted above. The Denaro scene, Queens, seems to be the only one of the eight SOS scenes without "outside" witnesses.

This SOS crime scene witness list is not complete.

SUMMARY: REGARDING THE CURRENT INVESTIGATION, AS OF 8/28/97 NO "FRIENDLY" WITNESSES HAVE BEEN INTERVIEWED BY YONKERS PD.

13. Witness list, 8/28/97

contacted. Located in Troy, NY area.)

---BILLY BRENNAN. Bronx. Dubbed "The Ghost of Christmas Past," Brennan was a Bronx boy of about 20 when he murdered a black guy on Xmas Eve of '77 for a unique reason: the victim kissed a white woman. Brennan remained free until someone flipped on him in about '84. Now doing major jail time upstate. Brennan was known by and knew members of the SOS cult.

Brennan, whom a prime source has confirmed was involved with the cult, also made statements to an MT prison source in which he stated he knew DB and company "from the streets." Brennan also told this MT prison source that he had knowledge of cult murders of kids and buried victims on the Willowbrook grounds in Staten Island. For various reasons involving Process, Untermyer, and child killer Andre Rand (formerly of S. Fenway St. in south Yonkers), this alleged Brennan statement is very significant.

*Brawley
of W. Brawley*

Further, Brennan was involved in weapons thefts at the Kingsbridge Armory in the Bronx (DB had the phone # of this very armory taped to his wall at 35 Pine in Yonkers). Brennan, on this armory matter, was linked to a National Guard general named Erlich, or similar, who was a close associate of Bronx congressman Mario Biaggi, himself a former NYPD member rumored to have been involved with the mob while employed by the NYPD.

Lest anyone think this is straying from the mainstream, it is a fact that Claudia Bingham, daughter of Bronx Congressman Jonathan Bingham ('64-'82, and now deceased) was involved with Process, as was her also-American boyfriend, Robert Hall.

In this context, there is also the matter of the hijacking of a Navy trailer loaded with rockets, etc. from a rest stop on I-95 in Branford, Ct. just before Halloween '83. Key prison source "Vinny" sent out advance notice in writing of what may be this hijacking. (Brennan not yet contacted. In prison upstate.)

OTHER INMATES. There are several who have knowledge that would be helpful to this investigation. Some may be on parole; others may be off parole or still in prison. These include Richie Rivington, John Adams, Jimmy Montague, and "Diane"--- a transexual inmate in the late '70s/early '80s; as well as the earlier mentioned "Cookie."

---PAULIE MARCUS. Queens. A top informant of NYPD OC Control Bureau cops in the '70s, Marcus knows much about the sex/occult underground during the SOS era and before. Also knows individuals in the circles under investigation in this case, including Ben Rose and Carmine Cardella. Paulie also has pertinent details regarding major Untermyer suspect "Whitey" and the alleged murders of kids "in the suburbs." Paulie was interviewed on tape by a retired NY detective on 12/27/96, at which time he provided
